New Bern is a city rich in arts, history, and outdoor recreation. It's a safe, suburban community with a population close to 30,000 residents with diverse social backgrounds. Residents range from home grown New Bernians, transplants seeking a slower pace of life, and snowbirds escaping from the cold weather. Military members and their families homestead in New Bern because of its close proximity to Marine Corps Air Station, Cherry Point and Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune.

If you're looking for something to do, you'll find a vast array of fun events and attractions throughout the year.

Surrounded by water, the Trent and Neuse Rivers, Brices Creek, Catfish Lake, and the many tributaries and streams offer plenty of opportunities for boaters, fishermen, and water enthusiasts.

We began filming for our upcoming movie, "The Hunt" - Women vs. Wild! Find out how you can become part of this movie as we will continue filming in April. If you haven't heard, The Hunt is a movie about two sisters' escapades while turkey hunting and camping in undeveloped areas of the Croatan National Forest. It's not just about turkey hunting. Our goal is to "paint a virtual picture" of the people, places, history, arts, and culture of New Bern and Eastern North Carolina. It's based on a true story as the sisters build their relationship, encounter bears and other creatures, not to mention the law; they get lost, and stumble across many interesting and sometimes frightening moments! They take breaks and venture into town to visit local businesses and non-profits.
