Happy 300th Year Anniversary, New Bern!

With 300 years of history, our city has undergone some profound and remarkable changes. It all started in 1710 when Swiss Baron Christopher de Graffenried, Explorer John Lawson, and a group of Swiss and German settlers discovered the beautiful countryside that was named “New Bern” after the Baron’s home city of Bern, Switzerland, which is now considered New Bern’s “Mother City”.

After a half century, North Carolina’s first permanent Colonial Capitol building was constructed in 1770 and later named Tryon Palace after Governor William Tryon. Tryon Palace became NC’s first state Capitol during the Revolutionary War in 1775. The Capital City was relocated to Raleigh in 1794. Tryon Palace burned in 1798. The landmark was rebuilt in 1950 from the original Palace plans. Tryon Palace draws in thousands of visitors a year with their re-enactments, lectures, and tours of this grand home-stead. Tryon Palace is located on Pollock Street (800-767-1560).

The Civil War Battle of 1862 took place in New Bern as the Union Soldiers considered the city a valuable commodity as a seaport and railroad depot. Visit the Civil War Battlefield at the entrance of Taberna Community, Hwy 70 East. Steeped in history, New Bern’s cemeteries offer a glimpse into the past dating back to the 18th century. The following cemeteries contain graves and memorials of special interest: New Bern’s National Cemetery (637-2912); Cedar Grove Cemetery, Greenwood Cemetery, New Bern Memorial Cemetery (639-7515) and 522 unmarked graves in James City are documented with a memorial monument next to the Crockett-Miller Slave Quarters on Howell Rd (638-8536).

New Bern is a city with many firsts to include: Pharmacist Caleb Bradham created “Brad’s Drink” in 1898 (Pepsi-Cola) - Pepsi Store (636-5898); NC printing press brought here by James Davis; NC’s public school, New Bern Academy, now a Museum (514-4951); NC’s chartered fire department - New Bern Fireman’s Museum (636-4087); revolving gun made in New Bern; Federal Court death sentence and federal hanging; NC ship to be constructed here; NC postal service; NC first town to decorate streets with colored Christmas lights; and NC’s first female Governor Beverly Perdue.

In 1922 New Bern suffered from a horrific fire, engulfing 40 City blocks-mostly African American neighborhoods with thriving businesses. Take “The Trail of Flames” Tour (637-7316).

New Bern celebrated it’s 300th Birthday Jubilee weekend with fireworks, a parade, re-enactments, Birthday Ball, and much more! We were proud to have the Ambassadors of Switzerland and Ghana, among many visitors, join us in this once in a lifetime celebration!

New Bern’s Fall and Winter Seasons are refreshing, as the temperatures cool down and we get a break from the 90+ degree temperatures! Although it’s rare to see any accumulation of snow, I welcome cooler temperatures so we can open up the windows and enjoy fresh air! Besides the change in temperature, New Bern has a terrific schedule of upcoming events!

The much anticipated Grand Opening of the North Carolina History Center is scheduled for October 22nd by Tryon Palace at 529 E. Front St. (800-767-1560).

Ghostwalk 2010 “The Best of New Bern’s 300 Years” will be here soon! Make reservations NOW, accommodations may not be available between October 28-31st. Some offer special packages for Ghostwalk, like the Hampton Inn. Contact the New Bern Historical Society for Ghostwalk details (252-638-8558)
